

Health Care Consumers' Association

www.hcca.org.au adminofficer@hcca.org.au 02 6230 7800

Share and download this booklet at: hcca.org.au/navigating-the-health-system

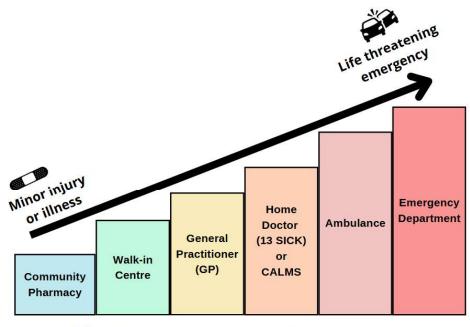

Updated June 2025.

This resource provides general information that is accurate at the time of publication. It is not professional medical or legal advice.

This work is licensed under CC BY-NC-SA 4.0. To view a copy of this license, visit https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-sa/4.0/

Finding the Right Health Service in the ACT

Call healthdirect on 1800 022 222 for advice, anytime

When to call 000:

Always call 000 or go to an Emergency Department for life threatening conditions like:

- difficulty breathing
- sudden collapse or fall
- chest pain or tightness
- uncontrollable bleeding
- severe burns

- sudden weakness in the face, arm or leg
- seizures
- head, neck or eye injuries
- mental health crisis if they may hurt themself or others

There are 2 emergency departments in Canberra:

The Canberra Hospital: Yamba Drive, Garran ACT Take children (aged under 18) here if you can.

North Canberra Hospital: Mary Potter Circuit, Bruce ACT

Not sure what health care you need?

Call Healthdirect any time. It is open 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. It has nurses who can answer your questions and help you care for yourself at home or decide what to do next.

Call 1800 022 222 or visit www.healthdirect.gov.au

Mental Health

Access Mental Health

Gives mental health crisis support and helps you get ongoing mental health care in ACT public health services. They can refer you to the community mental health teams in each town centre.

Call 1800 629 354

Medicare Mental Health

Helps you find a mental health service that meets your needs. Can give you short-term mental health support like counselling and support groups. You don't need Medicare or insurance.

Call 1800 595 212

Visit canberrammhc.com.au

Ask your GP about making a Mental Health Care Plan so you can get up to 10 mental health appointments a year bulk-billed or with money back from Medicare.

Other useful contacts

Canberra Community Info Hub

Volunteering ACT's information hub can help you find community groups on health issues and social interests like sport. Visit 20 Genge Street, City.

Call 02 6248 7988 or email info@volunteeringact.org.au

Disability Gateway

Call for help to find the right service to meet your needs. They can research and call services for you to make it easier to find accessible health and support services.

Call 1800 643 787 email disabilitygateway@benevolent.org.au

Allied Health

Allied health means services like:

h physiotherapy

dietetics

occupational (S)

psychology & counselling

Community Health Centres

Offer free or low-cost allied health care at 8 centres around the ACT. You don't need a doctor's referral for many services. Some services like dental are only free for children under 14 or concession card holders.

Call Central Health Intake on 02 5124 9977

Visit www.canberrahealthservices.act.gov.au

Not sure what care you need? Do a quiz to find the right service for you. Visit the Canberra Health Services website or scan the QR code:

University of Canberra Health Clinics

Students provide low-cost care under supervision from qualified professionals. Services include physiotherapy, nutrition, dietetics, counselling, exercise physiology and occupational therapy.

Call 02 6201 5843

Visit www.canberra.edu.au/health-clinics

If you have a health condition lasting more than 6 months, you can ask your GP to make a Chronic Condition Management Plan. This plan can include up to 5 bulk-billed allied health services a year to manage your condition.

For minor illness and injury Community Pharmacy

Your local pharmacy can:

- Help you treat minor cuts, rashes, coughs, colds and sprains.
- Give you health advice about long-term conditions like diabetes and asthma
- Give vaccinations for flu, COVID, shingles and more
- Review the medicines you are taking

Look for a pharmacy near you at findapharmacy.com.au

Walk-in Centres

Walk-in Centres have nurses who can treat non-life threatening illnesses and injuries in anyone older than 12 months. All services are free and you do not need a Medicare care to be seen.

Open 7:30am-10pm every day at:

- Gungahlin: 57 Ernest Cavanagh Street, Gungahlin
- Belconnen: 56 Lathlain Street, Belconnen
- Dickson: 111 Dickson Place, Dickson
- Weston Creek: 24 Parkinson Street, Weston
- Tuggeranong: Corner of Anketell and Pitman Street, Greenway

Check waiting times at each centre in the ACT Health app.

General Practitioners (GP)

GPs give you ongoing health care and can refer you to specialist doctors to care for major health problems.

Healthdirect's service finder can help you find a GP near you:

www.healthdirect.gov.au/australian-health-services

Some places have bulk-billing GPs for specific people:

- People who are homeless: Early Morning Centre, 69 Northbourne Ave, City. Drop in 9-11am Wednesdays.
- People aged 12-25: The Junction Youth Health Service, Level 2, 30 Scotts Crossing, City. Phone 02 6232 2423
- Women with barriers to accessing health care: Women's Health Service Clinics in City, Gungahlin, Belconnen, Phillip, and Tuggeranong. Phone 02 5124 1787
- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people: Winnunga Nimmityjah, 63 Boolimba Cres, Narrabundah. Phone 02 6284 6222
- Asylum seekers and refugees: Companion House, 41
 Templeton St Cook. Phone 02 6251 4550

Fees and bulk-billing

Bulk-billing is when the doctor charges Medicare or your insurance directly so you don't have to pay a fee. Not all G.Ps. bulk bill. You may pay then claim money back from Medicare or your insurance. Ask about fees before your appointment.

You can also ask your GP to bulk-bill in the appointment.

After Hours GP

These GP services are open after 6pm at night and on weekends when your regular doctor is closed.

National Home Doctor Service

Bulk-billed GP service for anyone with a Medicare card with home visits or telehealth on weeknights, weekends and public holidays.

Call 13 SICK (13 74 25)

Visit 13sick.com.au

Canberra After-Hours Locum Medical Service (CALMS)

CALMS clinics are open after hours on weekdays and weekends. A fee applies for consultations. They are located at North Canberra Hospital, The Canberra Hospital and the Tuggeranong Community Health Centre.

Call 1300 422 567

Visit www.calms.net.au

Know your health care rights!

These rights apply to all people in all places where health care is provided in Australia. You have a right to:

- Access
- Safety
- Respect
- Partnership

- Information
- Privacy
- Give Feedback

Learn more about the Australian Charter of Healthcare Rights at safetyandquality.gov.au/your-rights